If the six spiring continues the condition of the national debt, the ought to be sure he is registered in time to vote with the Union party.

A man who who knew what he was called for the national debt, the ough ment by repudiation, may be pretty sure he is voting to assume the debt inment by repudiation, may be preity sure he is voting to assume the debt incurred by the Southern Confederacy. If the country is going to stop the pensions of the maimed heroes who lost imbs in defending it, there is no principle that'can step short of giving pensions to crippled rebels.

Such a degree of impudence may lead some to entirely disregard all such declarations as that quoted, as mere gasconade; but we have the best reasons to believe that the purpose of repudiation is deliberately entertained by the party which in this State calls itself "Conservative." Here they are for repudiating the national debt, for repudiating the Bate of West Virginia, for assuming the debt of Virginia, and in general for extolling and glorifying treason, and bringing everything honorable and loyal into disrepute. The attempt will fail, and hereafter it will be counted infamous, and all who abet it will be branded like Cain.

INTERESTING DECISION ON INCOME TANES, &c.—It has been decided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that all expenses for insurance upon property, and all actual losses in business, may be deducted from the gross income of the year, but losses sustained after December 31st, 1865, cannot reduce Lake Union Vidette of the 4th instant gives the details of the recent murder in that city of Mr. Brassfield, a quiet and peaceable citizen, who has made himself obnoxious to the Mormons by marrying a lady claimed as the wife in polygamy of one of their number. The Vidette says that in the opinion of the Gentile community this murder was instigated by men high in authority in the Mormon Church.

At a copperhead meeting in Parkersburg on the 16th inst., Gen. John J. Jackson in a speech said: "If this proposed Amendment curries, these men, the recets, will resist it by force, and by the help of God I will join them."—Clarksburg Telegraph.

We copy the foregoing, not because it is a matter of any consequence what old Gen. Jackson says, but because his deelaration serves to illustrate the animal content of the second of the past winter. Says the Warren Chronicle: "The wheat crops look very promising, and the farmers are happily disappointed. Fields that had the appearance of being entirely winterkilled are sprouting up, showing conclusively that the plants reviewed very little, if any, injury the past winter."
